

THE MIDLAND WINE & SPIRIT ASSOCIATION

established 1905

(incorporating East Midlands Wine & Spirits Merchants' Association)

The Midland Wine and Spirit Association is one of four regional associations affiliated to the Wine and Spirit Trade Association (WSTA). Its members include regional businesses in the wholesale and/or retail trade of wine and spirits, local branches of national companies, importers, and producers.

BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

Make a difference...

by joining the ranks of the top Midlands businesses working with wines and spirits united in our efforts to make the Midlands wine and spirits scene vibrant and dynamic.

Improve business prospects...

by getting access to prospective suppliers, customers, consumers, and enthusiasts.

Increase your influence outside the Midlands region...

by having access to, and networking with, members of the West of England Wine & Spirit Association, the North West Wine & Spirit Association, and the Yorkshire & North East Wine & Spirit Association.

Raise your profile...

by hosting trade and consumer events, introducing interesting new products to the region, and contributing to the MWSA blog and social media.

Promote your business...

by sharing your events and offers on the MWSA website and social media profiles.

Enjoy discounts...

on paid events hosted by other members.

Gain exclusive access...

to a range of tours, talks and events organised by members and non-members throughout the region.

Train your employees and staff so they can contribute more to business growth...

by using MWSA discounts for WSET courses and a growing range of training programmes.

Help your employees and staff gain insight...

by inviting them to trade and consumer events and tastings, and by encouraging them to exchange experiences and notes with peers from within the industry.

Get access to reports, insights, and updates...

from the Wine & Spirit Trade Association simply by being a member of the MWSA.

Have your say with the government...

by lending your voice to the WSTA's policy campaigns, including those concerning excise and duty rates.
